

COLOR WAR SONGS 1974 RED RANGERS

FIGHT SONG(The Magnificent Seven)

Ride Ranger Red Onto Smash the Blue
Ride Ranger Red Onto Smash the Blue

Rangers, mighty Rangers
Kid the land of dangers
As we ride forth to meet the Blue Red night shows up in all we do

Ride Ranger Red Onto Smash the Blue
Ride Ranger Red Onto Smash the Blue

Onward spirits soaring
Into battle roaring
As we conquer the Bandit Blue
Bandits are clearly number two

Ride Ranger Red Onto Smash the Blue
Ride Ranger Red Onto Smash the Blue

Red Team, fighting for honor
Red Rangers, protecting the law

Ride Ranger Red Onto Smash the Blue
Ride Ranger Red Onto Smash the Blue

Courage never ending
This land we're defending Proving we're the best team of all Red Rangers at Camp Saginaw

Ride Ranger Red Onto Smash the Blue
Ride Ranger Red Onto Smash the Blue RED!

FRIENDSHIP SONG(Leaving On a Jet Plane)

For five long days we've been at war
Each team tried to boost its score
To top the other team out on the field
The battle is over, it's time to rest
Together we face this final test
To reunite the red and blue as one

Blue Bandits, reach out your hand!
Together we both must stand!
Red and Blue the strength of Saginaw

Blue Bandits, be at our side
As brothers now that war has died
Our friendship must prevail

AIMA MAHER(Love Makes the World Go Round)

Sunrise at Saginaw
Lights up the morning sky
Glistening from the treetops
The Elk goes flowing by

Throughout the afternoon
Compass play happily
Frolicking in the meadows
With spirits ever free

Later the sun goes down
Campfires light the sky
Kindling a flame within us
Friendship will never die

Twilight brings out the stars
In comes the evening chill
Another day is ending Saginaw now is still

Darkness pervades the camp
Today is a memory
Each day goes by so quickly
Saginaw we love thee

Now the fires of friendship are burning bright
Our weapons are gone we no longer fight
Red Rangers and Blue Bandits are at peace
Together we must uphold the law
Together we share our Saginaw For friends we were and friends we'll always be

Blue Bandits, reach out your hand
Together we both must stand
Red and Blue the strength of Saginaw

As brothers now that war has died
Our friendship must prevail

COLOR WAR SONGS 1974 BLUE BANDITS

FIGHT SONG(The Man Who Shot Liberty Valence)

The Bandits rode into the camp
That fateful afternoon - they came
The Bandits sought to be the champ
And put the Red to shame - to shame

For the Bandits of Blue had the better team
Red Rangers were forced to hide
Blue Bandits streaked out in the lead
With their strength and pride

Bandits now attack the Red
In search of victory
Go Blue
Smash the Red Rangers
Go Blue
Bash the Red Rangers
And we'll go down in history

Blue Bandits went through every day
With no respect for law - at all
Red Rangers were made to retreat
And flee from Saginaw - they'd fall

As the Bandits of Blue prepared to fight
Red Rangers took to the hills
When Red was faced with Bandit might They drew up their wills

Blue Bandits will defeat the Red
Here at Camp Saginaw
Bandits
Conquer Red Rangers
Bandits
Conquer Red Rangers
We will defeat the men of law

Bandits Conquer Red Rangers
Bandits Conquer Red Rangers
We are the best team of them all

FRIENDSHIP SONG(Raindrops Keep Fallin'
On My Head)

Bandits and Rangers were at war
Fighting for five days in 1974
At Camp Saginaw
The Bandits and Rangers were engaged in a struggle

From the first moment the teams took to the field
We all knew that soon the urge to win would have to yield Friendship conquers all
Now Rangers and Bandits stand together
forever

AIMA MATER(Camelot)

Surrounded by the beauty of the hilltops
As summer slowly slips away to fall Within our hearts we hold a special memory

Of Saginaw

Through winter days we yearn for summer sunshine
With every day we wait to hear the call
Of friends we love returning all together
To Saginaw

Saginaw, now summer rushes to a close
Saginaw, a burning ember ever glows

As springtime comes we feel anticipation
Of coming home to camp and playing ball Enjoying all the things that we remember
From Saginaw

At long last summer comes and we return here
The majesty of camp strikes us with awe
As treetops tower tall
Camp reunites us all
To forge the bonds of brotherhood that built our Saginaw.

For now the war is through
The Red and Blue stop fighting
Reuniting
The fire of friendship beckons us
It's time for lighting

Color war is coming to an end
Red Rangers and Blue Bandits are once again good friends
Battle days are gone
Now Rangers and Bandits stand together
forever
All the fighting must cease
Red and Blue are at peace
